ALBUQUERQUE, — APRIL 27, 1895

From Wednesday's Daily

Louis Husing, of Los Lunas, was in the city this morning.

R. W. D. Bryan, lawyer, went up to Las Vegas on business this morning.

Frederick, son of M. S. Otero, was a passenger on the train last night.

Hon. Pedro Perez and wife, of Bernillo, who were here yesterday, returned home this morning.

Capt. Wm. French, a big cattle raiser of Alma, N. M., is in the city, registered at Sturges' European.

W. H. Mathew, who went as far as Chaco with his wife on her way east, returned home last night.

T. G. Mathew, teammaster on the New Mexico division of the Santa Fe road, was in the city last night.

Rev. Howard, the Methodist superintendent for the territory of New Mexico, is over in the lobby country.

Mrs. J. E. Moore, wife of the clerk of Las Vegas, who is here for her health, has taken rooms at Mrs. Fetter's.

Mrs. E. B. Loomis, of Winton, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fox, on south second street.

Mrs. A. H. Meyers, wife of the proprietor of the Rose saloon, is expected home from Denver this evening.

W. J. Thomas and wife, pleasant St. Louis people, are registered at the Arizona, and will doubtless remain for a few weeks.

E. S. Wadell, of St. Joseph, Missouri, and W. H. Constantine of L. P. Case, were in the city yesterday and went north this morning.

Burglars entered the residence of W. F. Read at Santa Fe, stole a sack of flour, a feather bed and all the family clothing.

Mr. C. A. Whitten, of El Paso, is here on a visit to her husband, who is general manager for the Singer Sewing Machine company.

Miss Jenny Lodge, a young lady from the east, arrived last night, registered at the Arriaga, and expects to remain during the summer.

Cpl. T. F. Moore, the Bernardo post master, and Captain Neeble, the wine merchant of that place, drove down to the city this morning.

J. W. Rush, of Laramie, Kas., and Edwin A. Austin of Topeka, two friends of Judge Sterry, are in the city, registered at the San Felipe.

Joseph Greenendyke, the Los Lunas ranchman who is in the city, expects to take a two-months' punt through the Navajo reservation.

Miss Susie Martin, of Talmage, mother of Mrs. Luke Walsh, of old town, arrived in the city last night, and will probably remain during the summer.

Rev. G. R. Burlew, the Methodist minister at San Rafael, Valencia county, was a caller at this office last evening and ordered this Citizen to send his address.

Dr. Frank Stoddard of Providence, R. I., joined his wife here last night. Mrs. Stoddard had been stopping during the winter at the residence of N. W. Alger on the Highlands.

Slaughter and Furling. The captain is making a trip through the southwest country buying cattle, and loaded several cars at the new stock yards, south of the city, last Saturday. He states that Albuquerque has the largest and best arranged stock yards and feeding pens on the Santa Fe this side of Kansas City.

FORT WINGATE.

Expectancy of a Transfer - Improvements In Progress - Other Items.

Fort Wingate, April 22. The news seems to be widely spread that all the troops of the Second cavalry, will be transferred either to Fort Riley, Kansas, where troops C and D of the regiment are now, or to Fort Sill in Oklahoma. The former is preferred in view of the even chance for the past, of being made men in appointments. The order for transfer may come in May. This will remove many officers who have formed superannuation in Albuquerque.

Bastardine, Fremont thinks the First Regiment band should have first choice of the garrison stations for the two years. They'll play without pay, and the band would prefer the band to become more prominent in the organization of the garrison. The band and the musicians will stay at Fort Sill.

pany, on North First street. About 6 o'clock Marshal Russell and his men harried them out, and put up in their appearance, driving the gang out of the city. On their way, portions of the mob, Robert Barnes, by name, took advantage of the mineral law, and, upon him, by binding an upper end of a gun-barrel across the left side of the fellow's head. The officer, a night before, had the ball and this morning, with several others, he was sent to the iron cage for ten days. In the night, Barnes, himself, lost his liberty, and the marshal, having got him, put him in the iron cage again.
